Mr. Esteban De Jesús, interest in numbers and business since high school, continued developing his knowledge by obtaining a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a major in Accounting. During his studies, he had the opportunity to be part of the university's Student Association of Accounting, to work as Tax Associate on the company H&R Block and even assisted to the ACFE Global Fraud Conference in Austin, Texas. Esteban has a great charisma and loves to teach others his knowledge, the reason why he was a math and an accounting mentor during his college time.
